CVB Services for the Tour Planner

When groups meet in Montgomery, BIG things happen. Business or pleasure, Montgomery has a host of goup friendly attractions, restaurants and unique sporting facilities to make your gathering or event a brilliant success. Montgomery is…the spirit of Alabama's Heritage; the courage of Rosa Parks; the heart of the Robert Trent Jones Golf Trail; the steadfast dream of Martin Luther King, Jr. and the grace and beauty of the arts. Montgomery is more than you imagined. The Convention and Visitor Bureau is here to meet your every need. In this section you'll find everything you need to make your tour a success.

Pre-Tour Planning

The success of your tour depends solely on your pre-planning. Our Group Tour Sales staff will help you with all your tour details. We will help you contact lodging properties and refer you to step on guide services and local tour companies. Our sales staff can also suggest a variety of entertainment for your guests after their tour. Let our staff help you plan scheduled itineraries or assist you with planning several different activities and visits to local attractions. Together we can create a custom tour itinerary just for you.

Lodging

Our Group Tour Sales staff will be happy to generate a lead to all properties that meet your requirements and assist you with any hotel overflow. If you have questions or any additional requests we will be happy to assist you.

Bags

We offer bags based on number of room nights booked. Our bags have our Montgomery CVB logo and are accompanied with a souvenir. Each group is given one souvenir per person and all items are subject to availability.

Brochures

The CVB will also provide you with visitor guides for your group. The guide provides a complete list of attractions, restaurants, entertainment and general info about the city. We can also provide your group with a calendar of events so that they are aware of the city's activities.

Reception

The Montgomery Area Visitor Center will host a reception in your honor if your tour is overnighting in the city. Please ask the Group Tour Sales Department about this special offer and make reservations at least two weeks prior to your tour.

Montgomery to Birmingham

8:30 Depart for Birmingham
Drive Time: 1½ hrs.

10:15 Birmingham Civil Rights Institute
520 16th Street North | Birmingham, AL 35203
205-328-9696
The story of Birmingham's role in the nation's Civil Rights Movement has been told and retold by countless sources around the world. With the opening of the Birmingham Civil Rights Institute in 1992, Birmingham tells its own story. Exhibits in the institute portray the struggle for civil rights in Birmingham and across the nation. Displays and multi-media presentations join music and storytelling to depict historical events, from life in the 1920's through current race relations. The institute is designed as a scholarly resource center for education and research. The building is located on the corner of 16th Street and 6th Avenue North, (directly across from the legendary Sixteenth Street Baptist Church, site of the tragic bombing in 1963), and Kelly Ingram Park, assembly point for marches, demonstrations, rallies and prayer services during the 1960s.
Tour Time: 1 hr.

11:15 Sixteenth Street Baptist Church
1530 6th Avenue North | Birmingham, AL 35203
205-251-9402
Birmingham's most famous Civil Rights landmark, this church was bombed by Klansmen on September 15, 1963. The blast killed four young girls preparing for morning worship service. Built in 1911, the church had been a stage for many of the civil rights protests in the turbulent years of the early 1960's. A stained glass window in the church was sent by the nation of Wales as a memorial to the slain children.
Tour Time: 1 hr.

12:30 Lunch
Nestled on a plateau between Red Mountain and downtown, Five Points South is a historical neighborhood and city hot spot for shopping, dining, and nightclubbing. Five Points South has always been something of a place apart, and that eclectic tradition continues thanks to an interesting mix of patrons enjoying the area. An attractive assortment of architecture includes Spanish Baroque and Art Deco, all nicely tied together with plazas, trees, benches and other comfortable landscaping.

1:45 Alabama Jazz Hall of Fame
1631 4th Avenue North | Birmingham, AL 35203
205-254-2731
Birmingham native Erskin Hawkins penned the jazz standard "Tuxedo Junction" about an Ensley (Birmingham community) streetcar crossing, creating a sound heard around the world. And that's just one of Birmingham's many contributions to the world of jazz. The Jazz Hall of Fame exhibits memorabilia in the historic, Art Deco Carver Theatre.

Rosa Parks Library and Museum & Children's Annex 17

252 Montgomery Street | 334-241-8615
http://montgomery.troy.edu/rosaparks/museum

The museum features a recreated street scene and replica of the bus, while video footage transports witnesses to the fateful day. Additional exhibits lead visitors on an emotional journey through the days of the Montgomery Bus Boycott, which became the first step on the often difficult path to civil rights in America. The Children's Annex provides an experience that is much more child focused and tailored specifically for their age and comprehension abilities. Through the use of a "Time Machine," the museum reenacts the events involving Rosa Parks, activities of Martin Luther King, Jr., and involvement of other early Civil Rights leaders.
